

RE Syllabus Unit F5: Which places are special and why?

What should I know already?

EYFS children will know: • that everyone has different occasions in their lives that made them feel special. • what happens at a traditional Christian infant baptism and dedication. • what happens when a baby is welcomed into a religion other than Christianity.

Year 1 children will know: • that loving others is important in lots of communities. • To talk about what Christians and one other religious leaders teach about loving. • About what happens at a traditional Christian and Jewish or Muslim welcome ceremony, and suggest what the actions and symbols mean. • examples of ways in which people express their identity and belonging with faith communities and other communities, responding sensitively to differences

Key Vocabulary

special	something that belongs to you and is special
Church	Christian place of worship
Mosque	Muslim place of worship
holy	a very precious word for religious people, often linked to worshipping God

What will I know by the end of the unit?

- This half term, we will be learning more about Christians, Muslims, and places which are special to them.
- Children will learn:
- To recognise that some religious people have places which have special meaning for them
- To talk about the things that are special and valued in a place of worship
- To begin to recognise that for Christians, Muslims, these special things link to beliefs about God
- To get to know and use appropriate words to talk about their thoughts and feelings when visiting a church (or other place of worship)
- To express a personal response to the natural world.
- Books we will be looking at...

